Honoring Those Who Served and Those Whose Lives Were Cut Short

Cut Short is a permanent outdoor memorial garden that consists of twenty-one 6’ x 6” white posts placed in lines like the white crosses of Arlington National Cemetery. However, posts are cut in various lengths representing those who served a full career and those whose lives were “cut short.” The memorial, designed by Top 20 ArtPrize Artist Pamela Alderman is located on the grounds of the Village Arts Factory.

Honor and remember your family and friends who served our country. You can purchase a 3.5 x 5” engraved plaque for $100 that will be placed on one of the white posts permanently displayed in the outdoor garden.
